Sunday Holy Hour

Veronica Lueken: “. . . that was dictated to me by Our Lady, with directions taken from the Book of life, the Holy Bible. Though my voice is not large, I would like to read to you the first page of what Our Lady has called "The Gospel Truth."

‘The Gospel Truth’

Our Lady: "It is the will of God that a man chosen to be a representative of God in His House, Church, accept continence in place of marriage. Have you forgotten the vows taken of poverty, chastity, and obedience? The way was made known by Saint Matthew, chapter 19, verse 12. With the words of Jesus, hear ye this: 'Not all can accept this teaching, but to those who have been given the grace. For there are eunuchs who were born so from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made so by men through castration, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves so for the sake of the Kingdom of God and Heaven. Let him accept it who can, with a sacrifice for God.'

"Our Lord Jesus in the spiritual sense called those persons eunuchs whom He has chosen from the world to be His priests and to be the brides of Christ, who out of love of God do not marry. Many claim that the first Apostles were married. When called by Jesus, they were asked to give up all and follow Him.

"In the words of Saint Paul, from Corinthians chapter 7, starting with verse 29, entitled why virginity is preferred - the words of Saint Paul, one of the founders of holy Church chosen by Jesus, are these: 'But this I say, brethren, the time is short. It remains that those who have wives should be as if they had none, those who weep as though not weeping, and those who rejoice as though not rejoicing, and those who buy as though not possessing, and those who use this world as though not using it. For this world as we see it is now passing away. I would have you free from care. He who is unmarried is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he may please God, whereas he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife, and therefore he is divided.'

"Now this can be applicable to the brides of Christ, the nuns. And the unmarried woman and the virgin thinks about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy in body and spirit, whereas she who is married thinks about the things of the world, how she may please her husband. Now this I say for your benefit, not to hold you in check or put restrictions upon you, but to promote what is proper and to make it possible to you to pray to the Lord without distraction. What greater glory is there than for one to become a bride of Christ, wedded to Christ eternally. What greater honor is there but for a man to be chosen from among men to be a representative of Christ, pure of body and spirit for the greater glory of God and the Kingdom of Heaven, a true shepherd of the flock, an instrument for the salvation of souls.

"The words of Jesus are: 'If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me.' And the words of Saint Paul, the Apostle to the Romans, are thus: 'I exhort you therefore, brethren, by the mercy of God to present your bodies as a sacrifice, living, holy, pleasing to God, your spiritual service. Do not conform to this world, but be transformed that you may know what is good and acceptable and the perfect will of God.' "

And these are the words as given by Our Lady to be sent throughout the world. What you hear will be printed. It is the first page of what Our Lady has said will be called "The Gospel Truth." Not one word shall be denied, for it shall be found in the Book of life, the Bible. And no man can deny the Bible, for it has been written by the founders of holy Church.

For there are many today, many agents in the House of God who seek to destroy the Church of Jesus. However, we know that the sign of triumph will be with Jesus and Our Lady. And Our Lady has come to earth for this final battle with satan. I say final, because we are in the beginning of the end days. So those who are in the world will seek to deny this because they have become so much of the world that when we speak of things of the spirit they do not understand, or they do not wish to understand. For they have closed their eyes and they have hardened their hearts to the truth. Only prayer and sacrifice of those who care can bring the mercy of God to them, so that they will open their eyes, open their ears, and open their hearts to the word which is the truth from Heaven, as given by the Mediatrix between God and man, our Blessed Mother, through the intercession of our Blessed Mother, for the salvation of all souls here on earth.

And of course, we don't know until Our Lady comes just what message She will have for us. So I do pray that you will all be here this evening when Our Lady speaks to us, because I know that we are approaching more desperate times. Though we have received a reprieve, the world is in deep darkness. And Our Lady did say this morning to me that unless there is a change it will not be long before the return of Her Son. Therefore, the pages are turning very fast in the Book of life, and only man can hold back this darkness. Only man must change now, while there is time. For great punishments are upon the world, and the worst is yet to come.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen
