[Letter sent by Veronica to the clergy at Heaven's request]

Dear Esteemed Pastors and Assistant Priests:

It is with heavy heart that we must share the truth of fact with you in the light. There is a crisis in the holy House of Jesus. We cannot sit back and view this situation with words without action. This action will be constructive if based on prayer and the imploring of the Holy Spirit to direct the course of saving holy Church from further turmoil. The laity must come forth, as well as true priests.

Sin and abuses to Jesus in His House, condoned by false rationalization with blind fallacy of modernism, will lead many souls to hell! Bishops and cardinals, as well as the parish priest and helpers, will receive the same standard of fair and sublime judgment by the Father of Heaven, as He recognizes not the standards of prestige held so important by those not of the spirit of truth. Rank will not place one in front place for the crown.

Chastity, piety, poverty shall these be removed from among you? Shall you draw up man-made standards of conduct and dedication? Unless you love more the plan of God and the things of God, which are free for the asking, and you do not desire the soul-corruptive enticements of your world now, you will not be ready for the entrance into the Kingdom of Heaven.

A soul must be as pure as the snowflake before it enters the world of man, in order to merit entrance to the Kingdom of God. Pick up your cross, follow Christ! You will then be a true disciple. Welcome suffering, as the metal being molded by the fires of trial: constantly bent, turned, hammered, until by this crucible will come forth an entity of strength!

Pray for all cardinals and bishops. Many are fast entering darkness. Many are already fallen to the darkness. Their example and rank shall (sadly) enable them to carry along many souls with them into the darkness.

The angels cry in despair! The cup is overflowing! The hand heavy with chastisement has been placed now upon an unrepentant generation. Carry the banner called Faithful and True for Pope Paul. The Judases are all about him now!

You owe no man allegiance when it means that you must offend God. Your soul is in jeopardy now. Shall you join the sheep to the slaughter? Are you strong enough in Faith to overcome? If you are weak, the holy Host is still with you. When given from the hands of dutifully, legally-ordained priests not those chosen from among what was once a congregation, but which has now become an audience for a meeting that will bring forth all forms of aberrations and insults to the holy Host. They seek not the will of the Father, but the pleasure and will of man!

Priests of God, you have been sent a delusion. You have been misled. You have fallen in with the satanic plan to overthrow the true Church of Jesus Christ, the true and only Catholic, Apostolic Church, the House of God. Under the plan of satan, using the guise of peace and brotherhood a camouflage for the true purpose of the movement while the cross is bent, and man has placed himself before it as an object now to worship. Man seeks to dethrone his God! His arrogance and false intellectual pride has been his downfall!

Woe to evil man! The Father chastises those He loves!

The saints pray for you. A loving child of Jesus who sorrows with them.

P.S. Conversions will not be made when you lower the standards. You do not change a time-proven rock or House to suit the outsider. You win them by example and constancy. You must not compromise the Faith, as apostasy has then taken hold.
