WARNING FROM HEAVEN TO ALL CARDINALS AND BISHOPS

Vigil of December 31, 1972

[Following is the message sent by Veronica to the Cardinals and Bishops, at Heaven's request.]

Jesus: "You are gnawing at the structure of My House! Judas within My House; there are many Judases within My House. Turn back, Romans! The sword is poised.

Veronica: Jesus has given us a miraculous photo. In it is Jesus with a heavy crown of thorns on His head. He is carrying Pope Paul on His back. Scurrying behind them is a rat. The rat has a mitre on its head; on its long tail is a big W, the sign of warning. There is the letter J, for Jesus, next to a banner called Faithful and True, with gold fish next to it. The gold fish is the true pope, Paul VI. There are two W's in the photo to warn bishops and cardinals.

The facts and truth must be told. Those who are holy will be given the light to recognize the truth. Evil has fallen upon the holy men of the Church. Pray for all cardinals and bishops; pray for all priests. Many have gone into darkness. Pray for them.

Jesus: The Red Hat has fallen; the Purple Hat is being misled. Pray for all men of sin, as the angels are crying. -Words of Jesus.

Jesus: This, My child, is what will be: In darkness will they seek the way?

The rabat is the teacher of life. Be not fooled by those who foul them. - Words of Jesus.

There are many offenses being committed against the purity of the Holy Mass. Half-naked women are permitted to offend God. Pagan practices of worldly music and pagan dancing are being condoned by the priests. It is too late to condone these offenses to God. You call down punishment.

Forged documents are coming out of Rome. The enemies within holy Church seek to place the papacy and Pope Paul in a bad light, to place the blame on him, in an attempt to tear down the papacy and set up an international religion, and not of Jesus Christ. Many are accepting as sheep going to the slaughter. They neither pray nor try to patch the cracks. Many are in need of awakening to the truth. Rank in the Church is no guarantee of salvation. The light is dim now. Jesus will be recrucified by members of His own House. For what? Hell is their destination! Those in the light cannot deny these facts. Shall We say We have a pope in chains? Yes! He cries, Help, help! He is being placed upon the cross now. Stand behind Holy Father, Pope Paul! Jesus commands this, now!

Pray that the Holy Spirit will unmask the Judas to you now. Are you so blind that you cannot see what is going on? Use your God-given sense! Man can be wise, but stupid. Intellectual pride is a barrier. The humble of heart see more. The less worldly will see more. It is God's gift, in these closing days, to be manifested to. The voice of truth will not be stilled. No man is above God! He can do anything. So who can offend Him without repentance, and expect to enter the Kingdom?

God sees all. He tolerates mercifully, and then the sword will cut asunder the wicked. Remember Noe, the flood? Remember Sodom? And keep in mind the coming Ball of Redemption - the baptism of fire! Have you made amends? Are you ready? Live each day for that day which will not be long in coming.

Eternal Father: You are gnawing at the structure of My House! You are Judas in My House. Turn back! Turn back, Romans! You call down punishment!

The psychological effect of the Church changes upon devout Catholics was disastrous, as they knew no need for changes. The 2,000 years of solidarity of the Faith was enough proof for them of the true Church. Of course, there were always dissenters among the people, but they were not able to put the Chair of Peter and the Church into such trials as now. These changes gave the green light to those Marxist Catholics who were straining at the leash to free worship from what they called stuffiness, and make it more congenial to modern man who is not disposed to bend the knee; all in the effort to diminish the importance of the Incarnation and of the Real Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist.

The facts and truth must be told: Forged documents are coming out of Rome. The enemy within the Church seeks to place the Papacy and the Holy Father, Pope Paul, in a bad light - place the blame on the Holy Father in an attempt to tear down the Papacy and set up an international religion, not of Jesus Christ. Many are accepting as sheep going to be slaughtered. The light is dim now. Jesus is being re-crucified by members of His own House. For what? Hell is their destination! Those in the light cannot deny these facts. Holy Father, Pope Paul, is in chains!

Stand behind the Holy Father. Jesus commands this now! Pray that the Holy Spirit will unmask the Judas to you now. Are you so blind that you cannot see what is going on? Use your God-given sense. Man can be wise but stupid. Intellectual pride is a barrier. The humble of heart see more. It is God's gift in these closing days to be manifested to. The voice of truth will not be stilled. No man is above God.

Our Lady: Marxist Catholics are undercover workers for satan. My children, do not run away from the Church. You will gain nothing. Remain with My Son and help patch the cracks made in the wall so we can all be one again.

The foundation of My Church is solid; the foundation is My Son, Jesus.

When My priests become involved in political actions they are no longer forming the bulwark of My Church. They are members and candidates for revolutionary machine falling to the left. Catholics are being blindly led into aberrations with a false set of political values. The setting up of Justice and Peace Committees are leading in the wrong direction, going away from the sacramentals, floundering into humanistic, modernistic, paganistic practices and Marxist banners.

There are too many hands and voices in the running of the plan of My Church. There is a plan now to share Our Vicar's power among an episcopal college. The word being used is 'collegiality.' This collegialism is being applied also within the diocese, within the parish, within the religious congregations, and in every community of the Church in such a way as to make the exercise of government impossible. Authority itself is frustrated. This gives great sorrow to the Holy Father, Pope Paul. He has a good heart, but he is pressured. The council of bishops do not always listen, and override Pope Paul's objections. In turn, the bishops are up against hot-headed persons who use their place in the assembly to set up against the bishops. Quite a mix-up! Too many hands in the pie.

The world is in dementia, brought about by the theological and philosophical subversion of our times. The state of holy Church is a sorrowful reality. Sides have been chosen. God has placed His soldiers; satan his agents. Many minds have been poisoned by satan.

Hear now the facts of man falling into the web of satan.

The following is the blueprint of a 'renewal' of the Roman Catholic Church which was distributed to the new-breed theologians holding seminars in preparation:

Rule out: fasting, holy water, kneeling, altar rails, Rosaries, sign of the cross, vigil lights, holy days, Benediction, processions, Forty Hours, missions, Holy Week, throat blessing, bells, candles, crucifix, shrines, Scapulars, medals, and the monstrance.

Other changes: Ten Commandments to be called 'love slogans'; Confession to be made to a neighbor instead of a priest; Sacred statues to be replaced by banners; Adoration replaced by kissing each other; Birth control called family planning; nuns to live away from the convents; Catholic schools to become social action centers; prayers after Mass and all references to saints completely eliminated; priests gradually eliminated through marrying; and lay participation lead to gradually taking over all phases of services by singing, reading, playing drums and guitars; Catholic hymns replaced by protestant hymns; a constant changing to prevent a build-up of objections.

Then Jesus appeared, and He said:

Our Lord Jesus: A Church in darkness will wear a band of death about it. Pray for the priesthood. Desperate days are ahead. Do not offend your God. He is already too much offended. Be true to holy Church and the saints who gave it strength and purpose. Satan is in holy Church now.

Warning: Wars are a punishment for the sin of mankind, and they will continue until all men drop down on their knees and pray. And I refuse any soul the privilege of being with My Mother unless properly dressed. Women will not dress as men in Her presence. I will not gather souls at the expense of My Mother's sorrowful heart. She is grieved that Her messages are not read with greater care.

My children, do not let these words fall on deafened ears. It is My last. Your earth time grows short. Pray as you have never prayed before.

Our Blessed Mother reappeared to be with Jesus. She said:

Our Lady: My children, God sees all. He tolerates mercifully. The sword will cut asunder the wicked. Remember Noe; remember the flood. Remember Sodom. Are you ready?

The Apostles obeyed the Lord's command. Now the Church is in a continuous state of collegiality until all is topsy-turvy; faith, morals at a dizzy pace by Marxist Catholics, masons in the holy Church of God - all to a woeful end.

May We beg those with the desire for power in worldly gain to leave holy Church. You are rocking the bark. You will bring great punishment upon yourselves. As priests you accepted the vows of poverty, chastity, imitators of Christ, and not to become workers with demolition crews. You can use your rank to try to tear down, but you will go only as far as the Father will allow you, giving you enough room to fan your own flames.

All interlopers must be driven from the sacred grounds, now!

Our Lord Jesus: My children, now you know why you must keep a constant vigilance of prayer. Your Church and your country is in such a condition that it can only be brought back to normalcy by turning to Us. You will not concern yourselves with the opinion of mere man. You will follow the directives from Heaven.

Peace be with you."
