EXCERPTS OF THE MESSAGES TO VERONICA ON THE PRECIOUS BLOOD (in chronological order)

Vigil of July 15, 1970, Eve of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Our Lady: "My Son is still shedding His blood for the sins of the world. A Mother's heart is breaking. He accepts this suffering, My children, because He loves you."

* * * * *

Vigil of November 21, 1970, Eve of Christ the King

Our Lady: "Who created the pagan rituals I see before Me in the holy places of prayer? For well I remember how they, too, danced about My Son's cross, clapped their hands to the beat of each drop of His Blood. Why must you make My Son continue His anguish? See the torn flesh, the heart laid bare! Won't you stand beneath the cross with Me now?"

* * * * *

Vigil of February 11, 1971, Eve of Our Lady of Lourdes

Our Lady: "O woe to ungrateful man who cares not for the Blood that My Son shed for them! Their own destruction will be made through their own hands, in their own evil hearts. For the blackened soul can seek faster the ways of satan."

* * * * *

February 28, 1971, Message for the world given to Veronica by Jesus and the Eternal Father

Eternal Father: "My Son has shed His Blood on an unworthy generation. Heed My word; you have called down My wrath! I have called upon you for atonement, to be turned away. You will answer to your Father, and I shall spit you out as venom from the flames."

Monday, March 8, 1971, VERONICA WITNESSES THE PASSION OF JESUS

Veronica: "I screamed and winced as two soldiers took turns hitting Jesus' bare back with a long brown, leather-like strap. On this strap were metal hooks, laid horizontally all along the strap. These nail-like, claw-like fixtures on the strap cut and scratched deeply into Jesus' flesh, causing blood to pour out. It was a despicable game with the soldiers. They laughed and joked. Jesus never said a word."

Veronica: "Jesus was barefoot; His sandals had fallen off as they banged a stake higher into the pole and raised poor Jesus up so His toes barely touched the floor. The floor was just dirt and blood. The soldier remarked, 'Maybe they cut out His lying tongue. Ha, ha!' Our poor Jesus remained silent."

Veronica: "Jesus' hands were tied again with the brown, leather-like material; and He was dragged to His feet. The soldier draped His top gown over His torn back. Oh, I could see it stick to His oozing blood. Oh, it was horrible!"

Veronica: "Jesus tripped and fell. He was so weak now, the beam had thrown Him off balance as He staggered. Poor Jesus fell. One nasty old man ran out of the crowd to spit and kick Him - the nasty old beast! I tried to tear off my tunic to wipe the blood out of His eyes. It was awful! He looked up at me - the soldiers wouldn't let me through. I pulled at my hair in frustration and anguish. Jesus looked at me, and I saw the love of an eternal, glorious promise."

Veronica: "Soon a soldier grabbed a man out of the crowd. This man had a long gown on with stripes down the front, and he had a turban wrapped around his head with stripes in the front. He sure didn't want to carry the beam, but they knew Jesus couldn't make it to the outskirts of the town. So this man shouldered the beam while the insane crowd taunted. Jesus was pushed and pulled along. Dirt and blood were all over Him; He was a picture of bloody grime."

Veronica: "Soon two soldiers lifted the head of the wood and three the bottom, carrying Jesus on the cross, and dropped the end into a hole. It went in with a thump! Jesus winced. And it tore His hands more. Blood was trickling down His face. He couldn't move His head. The pain was awful; each movement cut deep. He sagged a bit, but pulled upward. The sagging tore more."

* * * * *

Vigil of March 24, 1971, Eve of the Annunciation

* * * * *

Vigil of June 17, 1971, First Anniversary of Our Lady of the Roses

Veronica: "Our Lady is standing now beneath a very large golden cross. Jesus is upon the cross. There is a deep gash in His heart area, and blood is pouring from it. His blood is dripping into the chalice. Our Lady is holding the chalice. The blood is filling the cup. It is flowing over on to Our Lady's hand and arm. The wound in Jesus' heart is bleeding very heavily."

* * * * *

Vigil of August 15, 1972, Eve of Saint Joachim

Veronica: "Oh, now Jesus is standing over - He has raised His hand. Now as He raised His hand like this, I could see the deep wound in His hand. Now He is touching His chest, and He has pulled aside His robe. And I see a large heart, but it looks like it's kind of cut. It's all cut; and now there is blood dripping - oh, onto the right part of His gown."

Our Lady: "Now Our Lady is coming down. She's over by the right side of the flagpole. And She's looking down over to the right side and over to the left, and She's holding out Her hand. Oh, but in Her hand is a large heart, and it's dripping with blood!"

Veronica: "Now he's holding a golden chalice, and he's looking into the chalice. And I see blood flowing from the chalice. It's a very large, golden chalice. Now I see three angels. They're standing over to the left side of the flagpole, and they have what looks like soup bowls in their hands."

* * * * *

Vigil of March 18, 1973, Eve of Saint Joseph

Our Lady: "My Son is very lonely in His House. Won't you come with compassion and ease His loneliness? You do not abandon those you love. Have you no love for your Creator? Have you no love for He Who gave His life upon earth for you? Have you no love for He Who still sheds His blood for you?"

* * * * *

Vigil of March 25, 1973, Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Veronica: "And over to the left side of the flagpole there's written a word: "YELLOW AGAINST WHITE, WHITE AGAINST BLACK," and then there's a large cross over the world. It's a globe of the world, and there's blood dripping over on one side. And there's a pool of blood; it's like a river. And now the word comes out from inside the blood, and it says "PALESTINE": P-A-L-E-S-T-I-N-E, and underneath, "JERUSALEM."

Veronica: "I can see - I can see where the spikes went right through His hands. Oh, the marks are there. It looks like - oh, it's not bleeding, but it looks very like dried blood, coagulated."

* * * * *

Vigil of April 21, 1973, Eve of Easter Sunday – Vision of the Crucifixion

Veronica: "Now I see that the hands are crossed across His chest, and they're bound tightly with this sheeting. But there's blood; there's blood seeping out on the sheeting. Oh! [Veronica finds it difficult and painful to describe the sorrowful scene.] Also, His face is covered, and there's blood coming out of the top of His head on the sheeting."

Veronica: "He's . . . oh, oh, he's - it's Jesus on the cross, and he's pushed it into Him just above His stomach! Oh! Now he can't pull it out. He's being covered . . . it's not blood; it's water. But he can't - he's running; he can't seem to wash it off his face. He's wiping his hands. It's over his hands; he can't get it off his hands."

Veronica: "The cross has fallen down now. Oh! They're holding Jesus, and the cross fell down. And now they can hit from the under side. The spike's coming out. They're not tearing His feet. The hands had to be torn. Ah! Oh, now the three ladies are rushing over. Now the man, he's now lifting Jesus up, and Our Lady now is sitting on the ground. She has Jesus now . . . the blood is on Her gown, all on the front. She wants to remove the headpiece from His head, but She can't. It's in too deep!"

* * * * *

Vigil of June 8, 1973, Eve of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Veronica: "But Jesus has on a red robe; it's tied at His neck with a golden string. Now He's placing the robe over His hand, like this, and - oh, He's opening His . . . the top part of His robe. Oh! Now I see there's a large heart. There's a large heart on the front part of His gown. But the heart now - there's a large sword; it's, it's, oh, it's going through His heart. And there's blood now dripping down His gown."

Veronica: "Now Jesus is bending down. He's placed His hand over His heart. Oh, it's His right hand, and the blood is seeping through His fingers."

Jesus: "My Mother has made many visits to your earth. She pleads your cause well with the Father. However, the time for your atonement has been shortened. You will all save yourselves now in the merciful drops of My Blood shed for you through generations, shed now for an ungrateful generation that has chosen to give himself to satan."

Our Lady: "Do not judge your Church, My children, by the standards of man, for a legally-ordained priest, a man who has been legally ordained, will be used by the Eternal Father, through the Spirit, to bring to you My Son, His Body and His Blood, which He is shedding in sorrow now for you."

* * * * *

Vigil of November 22, 1976, Eve of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Our Lady: ". . . many victim souls upon earth, My child, victim souls who shed the very blood of their hearts as penance, atonement, and sacrifice for the sins and offenses that tear the heart of My Son."

Veronica: "And now Jesus is extending His right hand out, and He has on it a heart. It's, oh, it's very - oh, I don't know how to explain it. It seems horribly hurting. There is like a band of thorns about it, and the blood is dripping now down from His hand."

* * * * *

Vigil of February 1, 1977 Eve of the Presentation Of Our Lord

St. Michael: "During the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, there is a change of the bread and a change of the wine, and it is the real Presence, the Body and the Blood of your God!"

St. Michael: "Did not the river in Egypt turn into blood in the will of God? And cannot God, in His will, come to you changing the bread and wine into the actual Presence, the real Presence, the factual Presence of His Body and Blood?"

Veronica: "Now Michael is going backwards. He's just floating. There's no way to explain it; it's like the air is carrying him. He covers the whole sky. It's a beautiful, awesome sight. But he's going backwards now, and pointing, holding the chalice high above his head. There's a great light now coming from all about the chalice, but there is like a bubbling over of blood, red blood floating out of the chalice upon the world."

Veronica: "I see Jesus nailed to the cross. I see a Body torn, with very few solid pieces of flesh left! I see His head covered by a crown of thorns, biting, cutting, tearing into His skin, and the blood flowing down."

Our Lady: "My children, unless you pray more, you shall not recognize the signs; unless you remain with My Son at the tabernacles of your world, you shall not recognize the signs; unless you eat of the Body of My Son and drink of His Blood, you shall not have the light within you."

* * * * *

Vigil of April 9, 1977, Eve of Easter Sunday

Our Lady: "You see, My child, the many martyrs I counseled you of. They also will wash their robes clean with the Blood of My Son."

Veronica: "Now Jesus is touching His chest and He's extending His hand out. And He has a heart, a flaming red heart in His hand, but there are droplets of blood now coming through His fingers."

Veronica: "Jesus is still holding the hand with the heart that's bleeding, and the blood is now running onto the gowns, the robes of these people dressed in white."

* * * * *

Vigil of May 14, 1977, Eve of the Queenship of Mary

Our Lady: "I repeat again that none shall bring the sacred Body of My Son, His Body and Blood, to another but a legally-ordained priest with consecrated hands. I say, My children, consecrated hands, blessed hands, washed clean by the Holy Spirit! No man shall render excuses for defilement of My Son's Body."

St. Michael: "There shall be set upon mankind a great tribulation such as has been never seen since the beginning of man's creation, and those that pass through this great tribulation shall come forward cleansed in the Blood of the Lamb."

St. Michael: "They have washed their robes clean in the Blood of the Lamb."

* * * * *

Vigil of May 18, 1977, Eve of the Ascension of Our Lord

Our Lady: "My child, I repeat Myself to you: at the start of the consecration in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, you will join your hands together and remain this way until all have received the Body and Blood of My beloved Son, respectfully and rightfully."

* * * * *

Vigil of June 16, 1977, Eve of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Jesus: "My children, you cannot have the light within you unless you partake of the Bread of life. Come to Me in all of the tabernacles of your world. Refresh yourself in the Blood of the Lamb."

* * * * *

Vigil of July 25, 1977, Eve of Saint Anne and Saint Joachim

Our Lady: "My children, My heart bleeds; I cry bitter tears to see the manner in which mankind has reduced My Son's House of worship and adoration to a meeting place of all manner of demons and abominations, defilement of My Son's eternal Body and Blood."

Jesus: "And if you retain your sacramentals and keep your faith, you will go through these times with great courage and perseverance. I repeat: Many shall wash themselves clean in the Blood of the Lamb."

* * * * *

Vigil of September 7, 1977, Eve of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Our Lady: "My children, you are not alone. All of the personages of Heaven have joined in this battle. The saints have waited for this day, and I assure you, My children, before this battle is over many latter day saints shall wash their robes in the Blood of the Lamb."

Veronica: "And there's - oh, my! There's a very, very heavy, somber-looking cross now in the sky. It's black-colored. It's really black and somber. But then there's a - on the right side of the cross, there's a huge Host; I know it's a Host. It's an illuminated round, circular Host. And now there's blood dripping now from the Host. And now there's a chalice appearing in the sky. And - oh, dear! It looks like there's absolute blood just dripping out of that Host into the chalice. Now the chalice is filled, and blood is flowing over the chalice."

* * * * *

Vigil of September 28, 1977, Eve of Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael

Jesus: "Prepare, My children, and go forward as light bearers, carriers of the Faith and truth. My children, before the final capitulation of mankind to the evil forces of destruction, all will have washed their robes clean in the Blood of the Lamb."

* * * * *

Vigil of October 1, 1977, Eve of Saint Theresa of the Child Jesus

Jesus: "It is truly now a battle of the supernatural. If you remain close to My heart in the Eucharist, if you nourish your souls with My Body and Blood, I assure you, My children, you will not fall into the darkness

* * * * *

Vigil of October 6, 1977, Eve of Our Lady of the Rosary

Jesus: "Seek the light, My children. It is a simple way. I am the way, I am the light. I've left a legacy to you. Nourish your souls with My Body and Blood."

* * * * *

Vigil of November 1, 1977, All Saints' Day and Eve of All Souls' Day

Our Lady: "You must not abandon My Son. You must go to the tabernacles of the world and eat of His Body and His Blood, the Bread of life."

* * * * *

Vigil of November 19, 1977, Eve of Christ the King

Our Lady: "We ask for many victim souls in the days ahead, those who will prostrate themselves before My Son on the cross and catch the blood coming forth from His wounds again as He is thrashed and beaten anew by mankind. My Son is being re-crucified by His own."

* * * * *

Vigil of December 7, 1977, Eve of the Immaculate Conception

Jesus: "You cannot wait, you cannot expect your brothers or sisters to guide you completely. Unless you accept the sacramentals given to you, unless you eat of My Body and drink of My Blood, you cannot and will not have the light within you, for I am truly the Bread of life."

* * * * *

Vigil of February 10, 1978, Eve of Our Lady of Lourdes

Our Lady: "No, My children, this was brought about to desecrate My Son, to take from Him the truth of His divine nature. No one who hears My voice must accept My Son's Body and Blood in the hand! The chalice shall turn, and you shall be bathed in His Blood."

* * * * *

Vigil of March 18, 1978 Eve of Palm Sunday

Jesus: "I give you My heart, My children, a heart torn asunder by mankind. But even if I must shed My blood anew for you I have great hopes that in this suffering the world can escape the great Chastisement."

* * * * *

Vigil of March 25, 1978, Eve of Easter Sunday - The Entombment Vision

Veronica: "He looks very bloody. The blood has dried. It's not running any longer. It's dried upon His side. There is a gaping hole in His side, on the left side under His heart. And the blood has dried all about His face."

Veronica: "His face looks very, sort of dirty. It's a lot of caked mud on His face. But the blood hasn't dried, because it's coming upon the sheeting; it's seeping through. And now I can understand the voices: "We must leave. The hour grows late. We cannot defile the laws."

* * * * *

Our Lady: " My child and My children, that I am most distressed with the actions of mankind in turning aside from My Son when He has given to you all the greatest of sacrifices: His Flesh, His Blood and His Spirit, so that the gates, the entrance to the eternal Kingdom of your God would be open anew to mankind. Has this sacrifice of My Son been in vain?"

* * * * *

Vigil of May 13, 1978, Eve of Pentecost Sunday

Veronica: "And Jesus now has stopped just between the tall tree and the banner, the flag. And He's bending over now, and making the sign of the cross: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Now He's floating backwards; He's moving up backwards, and He's now taken His hand and placed it on His heart. And I can see the blood is coming now down from His hands."

* * * * *

Vigil of May 27, 1978, Eve of the Queenship of Mary

Jesus: " I ask you this: do not abandon My House, My Church. Remain in your parishes as an example. If you unify against evil you can vanquish this evil! If you run away, you leave My Church open to thieves and robbers! Shall you deny to your brothers and sisters the opportunity to enrich their souls with My Body and Blood?"

* * * * *

Vigil of June 18, 1978, Eighth Anniversary of Our Lady's Apparitions at Bayside

Veronica: "Jesus is coming forward. He's floating forward; He doesn't walk. I can't explain the way He's carried weightless through the sky. He has nothing upon His feet. I can see the marks of the spikes, the nails, on His insteps. The wounds are very evident. They're very sore looking, and they're red, a deep red. There's no blood coming from them; they're like dry, but they're very, very, very sore looking."

* * * * *

July 15, 1978 Eve of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Veronica: "Oh, my goodness! Oh, I see two hearts. They look like living, pulsating human hearts. They - oh, my goodness! And I see knives, actual knives, but they are a cross on the handles. The knives are thrust in the hearts, and the blood is coming down like blood falling from the sky."

* * * * *

September 7, 1978, Eve of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Veronica: "I can see Jesus on the cross, as living! Oh, but He's suffering terribly. I can see His head covered with the crown of thorns. I mean covered! It goes down to His forehead and covers His whole head. And there's blood running down His face, and He's in terrible pain."

* * * * *

Vigil of November 25, 1978, Eve of Christ the King

Our Lady: ""Even in My Son's churches I have watched My children approaching the Sacred Species, My Son's Body and Blood - His divinity being desecrated by young women, young men, and even middle-aged, wearing satan's emblems! How foolish you are not to recognize the cross and the sacramentals given by the institutionalized churches - the Roman Catholic Church of My Son - even though sadly I have often cried at the many denominations that came from the first Church of My Son."

Our Lady: "They are martyrs, My child, who have washed their robes clean in the Blood of the Lamb."

* * * * *

Vigil of December 7, 1978, Eve of the Immaculate Conception

Our Lady: "We ask that all bishops and cardinals refrain from promoting change and reform in My Son's Church. They must gather the peoples into the Church to do honor before the Eucharist. Unless you eat of the Body of My Son, and drink His Blood, you shall not have the light in you."

* * * * *

Vigil of June 2, 1979 Eve of Pentecost Sunday

Veronica: "I notice that His feet this evening are bare; He has nothing upon His feet. I can see the wounds on His instep of His feet. They seem to be open and oozing blood. Now Jesus is placing His hands out like this, in front of Him. Oh, and I can see the wounds in His hands. They are also very sore-looking; they must be very painful."

* * * * *

Vigil of June 18, 1979, Ninth Anniversary of Our Lady's Apparitions at Bayside

St. Michael: "You will kneel, my child. For you must eat of His Body and drink of His Blood."
[Veronica kneels and with tongue extended receives Holy Communion mystically from St. Michael.]

* * * * *

Vigil of July 14, 1979, In honor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Jesus: "Prayer, atonement, and sacrifice must now be your guide through life. Wear your sacramentals. Receive the Eucharist daily. I come to you; I am with you. It is My Body and My Blood. He who nourishes himself with It shall live forever."

* * * * *

Vigil of September 7, 1979, Eve of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Veronica: "Our Lady is turning now to Jesus. I see forming about His head a very, very heavy crown of thorns. Now over the crown of thorns, I see forming a basket-like weave, a head covering interwoven like a basket weaving. It's settling now over the thorns making a very heavy head covering. I can see the blood coming down His face."

Veronica: "Now Jesus is looking about Him. He has the heavy crown of thorns upon His head. The blood is still coming down across His forehead. And now, as He's raising His hand out, like this, for blessing, I can see blood coming from His palms down onto His arms, onto His gown. And He's now extending the arm - and it must be very painfully - to make the sign of the cross in blessing upon all: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Now Jesus is looking about Him. The pain of the head covering must be almost unbearable, from the flow of blood onto His face. But He's turning now and looking directly over to the left side of Him, over to our right. Now He is placing His hand so covered with blood to His lips, and He is saying."

Veronica: "Oh, my! Oh, dear! Oh! I see now Jesus upon the cross! I - just as I saw it in 1971. Oh-h-h! Oh-h-h! I see Him upon the cross. His hands with the nails through His palms, and the skin-like ropes holding onto His wrist, onto the wood. [Veronica sighs plaintively as though in pain.] The blood is carrying through the na-a-ail! Ah-h-h! Ah-h-h! [Veronica undergoes excruciating pain, both emotionally and physically, as she joins Jesus in His sufferings.]

Vigil of September 14, 1979, The Exaltation of the Holy Cross & Eve of Our Lady of Sorrows

Jesus: "My child and My children, wear your sacramentals as given from Heaven. You must eat of My Body and drink of My Blood in the Eucharist or you cannot have the light within you, for I am the light and the way. He who is not with Me is against Me! I am the light and the way! You cannot serve the world and serve God the Father, in the Son and the Holy Spirit."

Jesus: "I bless you all, My children, and send to you the necessary graces to proceed with perseverance and endurance in the days ahead. The great tribulation will soon be upon mankind. Those who pass through the tribulation shall come out cleansed, their robes cleansed with the Blood of the Lamb."

* * * * *

Vigil of October 2, 1979, The Guardian Angels and Eve of Saint Theresa

Our Lady: "For all the blood He shed for you, you defame His name. For the heart that bled for you, you despise Him anew. O My children, heap all upon Me the abuse that satisfies your addiction to sin, but do not defame the name of My Son. I ask you as your Mother to listen to Me, for I have come to try to save you - to save you even from yourselves, for you are blinded by sin."

* * * * *

Vigil of October 6, 1980, Eve of Our Lady of the Rosary

Jesus: "I ask you all not to abandon My Church. Do not judge My Church by the priest, for in his human nature he can err. But I assure you I am using him, as a legally ordained priest, to bring you My Body and Blood. Do not go seeking elsewhere, for you will lose your baptismal right, and you will no longer be accepted as a Roman Catholic, and you will not enter into the highest place of Heaven, the Kingdom of Paradise."

* * * * *

*Vigil of June 18, 1981, Eleventh Anniversary of Our Lady's Apparitions at Bayside
(Veronica received was home ill)*

Veronica: "Oh, there's Michael. Oh, Saint Michael! Oh, he's tremendous. He's tremendous! Oh, but do you know what he's doing? He's got a chalice, a large golden chalice in his hand, and he's holding the chalice now and turning it down, and there's like blood pouring out of the chalice. . . blood! Oh, my goodness!"

Veronica: "Our Lady is showing me now a heart that was implanted on the front of Her gown. Her gown is just stained with blood now. It is bleeding. Oh, my goodness! It's bleeding onto my carpeting, too."

Our Lady: "My heart, My child, is torn and bleeding, because it is the children that I cry for now. They are being misled."

* * * * *

Vigil of June 18, 1983, 13th Anniversary of Our Lady's Apparitions at Bayside

Veronica: "This is at - the statue of Our Lady. If you look up perhaps you can see it. Over to the left, beyond the first tree, there's a chalice. It looks like it's made of pure gold. And this chalice now is dripping. Oh, my! Oh, what's coming forth from the chalice is blood. Our Lady knows that this has given me a terrible inner shock. Our Lady places now Her fingers, first finger to Her lips."

* * * * *

Vigil of June 30, 1984, Eve of the Most Precious Blood and In honor of the Visitation of Mary

Our Lady: "My Son's heart is bleeding because of the manner in which His Mass is being celebrated, with neither honor nor sacrifice. My Son is not pleased with the manner in which His Body and Blood is being given to all of the humans upon earth. Communion in the hand has not been, and will not be accepted by Heaven."

* * * * *

Vigil of August 21, 1985, Eve of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Jesus: "This, My child, is a prayerful means of suffering. We wish that the blood of Christ be upon mankind, and not the blood of his brothers."

* * * * *

Vigil of May 17, 1986, Eve of Pentecost Sunday

Our Lady: "However, many saints shall come out from this conflagration, saints who have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb. Many shall die in the great flame of the Ball of Redemption."

Jesus: "My child and My children: yes, they are some of the few who have washed their robes clean in the blood of the Lamb, through suffering upon earth."

VERONICA SUFFERS OUR LORD'S PASSION

"Pray constantly in your homes. Do not abandon the statues and holy relics for modernistic sculpture and pagan artifacts. Protect the innocence of your children. You must be most careful and monitor their training, both in religion and sectarian training.

"My children, I do not want a schism and division in My House upon earth, My Church. Convert the unbeliever. Do not compromise your Faith. Heresy, O mournful heresy - condoned and permitted in My House!
Do you seek, O clergy, to recrucify Me?"

[Veronica in ecstasy extends her arms in the form of the cross as she views the agony of Jesus on the cross.]

Veronica - Oh, my! Oh, dear! Oh! I see now Jesus upon the cross! I - just as I saw it in 1971. Oh-h-h! Oh-h-h! I see Him upon the cross. His hands with the nails through His palms, and the skin-like ropes holding onto His wrist, onto the wood. [Veronica sighs plaintively as though in pain.] The blood is carrying through the na-a-ail! Ah-h-h! Ah-h-h!

[Veronica undergoes excruciating pain, both emotionally and physically, as she joins Jesus in His sufferings.]

His feet are crossed on the wood, the right foot over the left. [Veronica sighs heavily again.] There's a big spike through His instep, through His feet onto the wood. Ah-h-h! [Veronica cries out in pain.]

I can see His arms. Ah-h-h! His arms are straining. Oh-h-h! Now He's putting His head upward, and He's saying,

"Father, forgive them anew, for they do not know what they are doing!"

[The emotional stress upon Veronica in seeing Our Beloved Savior upon the cross, crucified, is almost unbearable as she sighs and groans. Finally, exhausted from the strain, Veronica allows her arms to collapse and her head falls limp to one side. She has fainted from the ordeal. She is revived ten to fifteen minutes later.] Vigil of September 7, 1979

Our Lady: "Do not recrucify My Son upon earth, because you will all be held accountable. None shall come to the Father except from My Son. For My Son is in the Father, and the Father is in My Son, and the Holy Ghost. I know full well that it is not understandable to many the existence of a Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. They are all one, in one God. I repeat again: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost.
