Two Forces – Good & Evil

Veronica: On September 4th in 1968, Theresa knew it was imminent and most important that we give this message to the world: that our dear souls here on earth must realize the existence of two forces, the good and the evil, that are constantly at war; but most of all, the importance of knowing that at this present moment, never has satan been so unleashed upon souls. And his agents are coming from the abyss in full swing. It is only through prayer and our faith and our full trust in our Father in Heaven that we can avoid these agents and their devious methods for dragging us into the abyss with them.

Now this writing we'll call: "His Satanic Majesty."

"We live in the world where the choice of Free Will, will make us the decisor in the final choice of an eternal goal. For there are among us envoys for two majesties: God and Lucifer.

In His love, Our Lord Jesus wants us to follow our hearts to Him, not through cajolery or by buying our affection through material things, but the priceless emotion of love must be given freely because we want to and not because we have to. Fear never begets love. What has Lucifer to offer? Being not God, he must use cajolery, put before us the material pleasures and diversions, buy his way to us: live for today, forget God. Live now. Lie, cheat, steal; who can see us? You want money and all the things this paper god can buy? Friendship as long as the money lasts. It's always fair weather when fair friends get together. There is only one point of saturation then: death of the body.

We idolize the body, pamper it with costly perfume, lotion, creams, clothes, all dressing to make us attractive to one another. But how do we look in the eyes of God? He sees no trimmings, only the bare soul. Will this be a beautiful gift to Him, or a repugnance to have Him banish from His sight as too heartbreaking? Satan has his envoys. Oh, there are many who he works through, people, places, things, all destined to take, to turn the face from Heaven, to carry our souls to or away from Jesus.

Which path are you traveling? One is easy. The other knows sacrifice and purpose. What purpose can satan offer, eternal life in the furnace, damnation, anguish, sorrow, fear, hell. So you say there is hell on earth? Are you in a constant state of burning? Don't you use science and pleasure to ease your pain? In hell there will be no doctors to help. There will only be the laughter of Lucifer as he jealously extols his conquest before the dear Lord. His tears fall, but cannot extinguish the flames of hell. Our Lord will cry the heartbreak of a loving parent who has lost a child.

Here on earth our years are numbered, a temporary home of 50, 60, 70 years, more or less. The life hereafter is eternal. There is no measure of time in eternity. It will be then, now, and hereafter. This will be our new life eternal. Only those with the good hearts of children, of pure love for goodness, may enter the Kingdom of God. Some may serve a short or long duration of waiting for admission in a temporary limbo, a port for debarkation on the shores of the heavenly Kingdom where Peter examines our passports and we will be in quarantine for the time needed to make well our sick souls. Once the stigma of sin has been healed by our waiting penance, that is the anguish of reaching out, but Our Lord will be just beyond reach, then we will be taken to the gates of Paradise by a heavenly guide.

Heaven offers happiness beyond all human words to describe, a goodness that encompasses all human and spiritual emotions. Hell has no goodness to offer, a placing in the hands of a cruel master, another form for satan to torture with delight, another conquest from a grieving Father. He will laugh at the trickery and devious methods he used to blind you to the entreaties of God. God needed no trickery or false illusions or things material. He just gave His heart and the blessed truth, a love many preferred to throw away for the present satanic diversions. Our Lord has His envoys, His holy Church and teachers. There is salvation all around us if we open our eyes to the truth.

Satan has many helpers who work in an underground church, idols to pleasure and body worship. There are many disguises cleverly worked to cover the real purpose of soul destruction. Ask God to protect you and those you love against the blandishment of the devil's disciples, open our eyes and hearts to the truth.”
