Vigil and Holy Hour information

The small stone monument (exedra) commemorating the site of the Vatican Pavilion during the 1964-65 World's Fair is the location where the Vigils and Sunday Holy Hours are held. It is approximately 200 yards southeast of the Unisphere in Flushing Meadows-Corona Park, Queens, New York. The Vigils are held from 7:30-10:30 p.m. Also, Our Lady instructed Veronica in 1970 to hold a Holy Hour every Sunday, and later specified that the intentions be for the Pope and all clergy and in reparation for the profanation of the Lord's Day. This is held from 10:30-noon. The Rosary is recited continuously for the duration of both events.

The veneration of the Rosary

The Mother of God kissed the crucifix of the Rosary that adorns the statue of Our Lady of the Roses, Mary Help of Mothers on October 29, 1994. We invite you to share in this supreme honor by kissing the crucifix yourself after the Sunday Holy Hour and before and after the Vigil.

Modesty of dress

This practice is held in the highest esteem by Our Lady and Our Lord. And so all good Christians should be vigilant in this regard, not only on the sacred grounds but also in their daily lives. Always observe the proper norms as established by the Vicars of Christ and Holy Tradition. Women must wear a dress or skirt below the knees and a head covering; no shorts or slacks are permitted. Men will wear loose-fitting clothes.

1998 Rosary Procession dates

May 3—Sunday Holy Hour, May Crowning of Our Lady of the Roses (10:30 a.m.)

On the following Vigils at 7 p.m.:

May 30, June 18, August 1; October 2 (Candlelight procession. Bring your own votive lights.)

Our Lady requests all (men, women, and children) to wear white gloves.
