Vigil and Holy Hour information

The small stone monument (exedra) commemorating the site of the Vatican Pavilion during the 1964-65 World's Fair is the location where the Vigils and Holy Hours are held. It is approximately 200 yards southeast of the Unisphere in Flushing Meadows-Corona Park, Queens, New York. Our Lady instructed Veronica in 1970 to hold a Holy Hour every Sunday, and later specified that the intentions be for the Pope and all clergy and in reparation for the profanation of the Lord's Day. It is held from 10:30-noon, the Vigils from 8:30-11:30 p.m. (Except Christmas Eve, 7-10 p.m.) The Rosary is recited continuously during these intervals.

Please note: In cooperation with Park officials, we moved back Our Lady's Birthday Vigil to accommodate the U.S. Open tennis championship.

1994 Rosary Procession dates

May 1—Sunday Holy Hour, May Crowning of Our Lady of the Roses (10:30 a.m.)

On the following Vigils at 8 p.m.:

May 28, June 18, July 15, August 13;
October 1 (Candlelight procession. Bring your own votive lights.)

Our Lady requests all (men, women, and children) to wear white gloves. Also, all are asked to observe the proper norms of Christian modesty. Women must wear head coverings; no shorts or slacks are permitted.

The Vigil light signals

A system of light signals is used at the Vigils to help those attending to more closely participate in the progress of the Vigil. Our Lady's arrival and presence on the grounds is indicated by a blue light mounted on the exedra; for Our Lord a red light is used. Three successive flashes of the red light signify the bestowal of a blessing by Our Lady or Our Lord.
